LONDON PARK LANE

A timeless Art Deco
wedding address

Timeless 1920's Glamour

One of London's premier locations for weddings and events, the Sheraton Grand London Park Lane is renowned for its elegant Art Deco architecture and exemplary service. Perfectly positioned in the heart of Mayfair, opposite Green Park and moments away from Buckingham Palace, it houses one of the city's most iconic grade II listed ballrooms. Thoughtfully restored to truly capture the essence of the 1920s, this generous space creates a stylish backdrop, with high ceilings, sweeping staircases, ornate crystal lighting and elaborate gold and mirrored detailing. Ideal for up to 440 seated guests or a standing reception of 1,200, it benefits from both a private entrance and the choice to stay overnight in one of London's top hotels.

It's all in the detail

Arriving through the private entrance of the gilded Silver Gallery, with its stylized murals and sculptural metalwork, the sweeping staircases lead guests to a vast mezzanine, ideal for drinks and canapé receptions. From here, they get their first glimpse of the stunning ballroom below, with its maple sprung dancefloor, classic waterfall lighting and original sunburst cornicing. The three levels offer a wealth of entertaining options and photo opportunities, ensuring a memorable day that is both personal and bespoke.

A close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph of a silver tray holding several gourmet appetizers. Each appetizer consists of a small cube of yellow cheese, a fresh blackberry, and a clear capsule containing a dark red liquid, likely wine. The tray is held by a hand, and the background is softly blurred, showing more of the same appetizers. A large, semi-transparent circular graphic with concentric lines is overlaid on the right side of the image.
